We Have A Cool New Look!!!!

Something In The Woods, GodZone Ministry, Sense Of Urgency, and Little Cherub Entertainment have combined their Newsletters in order to bring you a more efficient, informative and engaging experience. LCE will be our primary news and marketing source for all of our movies, including Something In The Woods and Sense Of Urgency.

We invite you to subscribe to our newsletter for periodic updates and announcements.

We will continue to have individual websites for each entity with specific information relating to them independently. However, combining our newsletters will help us be much more efficient in getting up to date announcements and specials out to our fans in a timely and effective manor. Previously, we have sent separate newsletters out for each organization without sufficient accuracy. Considering we were promoting the same basic information in all of the separate newsletters, we decided we could just combine to one and be more committed to getting it out to you on a more prompt schedule.

First commercial exhibition of a projected motion picture \(film\) From: Guinness World Records

Often hailed as the 'founding fathers of modern film', the Lumiere Brothers,

Louis and Auguste, can take credit for the first commercial exhibition of a projected motion picture to a paying public in 1895, in the world's first movie theatre - the Salon Indien, at the Grand Cafe on Paris' Boulevard des Capucines. The 20-minute program included ten short films with twenty showings a day.

Sense Of Urgency Is coming along very well. It is in the early stages of the editing phase as I type this message. We've had a chance to review all of the footage and put a few scenes into a rough cut and I have to say that this is shaping up to be an outstanding movie. I want to personally give props to all of the cast and crew for a job well done. You guys are an amazingly gifted and talented family.

Something In The Woods is now live on major Video On Demand channels including Itunes, Amazon, Google Play, XBox, Sony Play Station, Vudu, CFDB, Vimeo, and www.sitwmovie.com. DVD's and BluRays are available at our online Cherub Store

Little Cherub Entertainment has received a whole new look. We've completely rebuilt our website with a bold and efficient look and feel.

Little Cherub Entertainment is an innovator in the entertainment distribution business, specializing in managing world-wide distribution of superior independent films and music. LCE manages domestic and international sales, marketing and monetization of choice films through traditional and non-traditional release formats. Our goal is to offer filmmakers the experience that is needed in managing the many platforms of entertainment distribution without having to sacrifice their creative time with sales and recouping investments and profits. LCE ownership has over 100 years of combined sales and marketing experience as well as over 80 years of combined entertainment experience. This kind of experience gives us the skills we need to get the job done right.

You're a filmmaker and We're a film-distributor, let us distribute for you because you need to be making films. Read More
